

Junior Accountant
(Erasmus+ traineeship in engineering company)

Location: Western Slovakia, Trnava region

Start: april 2016

Duration: 5 months

Working language: English

Company profile:

This position is for a branch of international engineering company located in Trnava region with around 80 employees and shop floor of 5000m². The company specializes on manufacturing conveyors, heat exchangers, wood processing, waste handling, and recycling machines. Company has international team and believes that excellence can only be achieved through dedication.

Position description:

The intern will be participating in preparing financial forecasts, planning, cash flow, will create supportive documentation regarding cost analysis and preparing financial models and reports.

Qualifications:

- University education in economics/accounting/controlling
- Fluency in English or German
- Advanced user skills in MS Excel
- Knowledge of principals regarding financial forecasting
- Analytical working approach

Knowledge, skills and competence to be acquired:

Intern will learn about basic principles of accounting, preparation of budget, time management, reporting and multitasking. Intern will also get new experience in in Slovak branch of international company.

Benefits:

- accommodation provided
- meal vouchers
- standart support by our team, for details check our website
<http://placementslovakia.com/about-us/what-we-offer>

Interested candidates please apply by submitting an online application form at www.placementslovakia.com and state the name and number of this vacancy into the relevant field in the application.

We look forward to hearing from you!

Junior Design Engineer

(mechanical engineering Erasmus+ traineeship)

Location: Western Slovakia, Trnava region

Start: april 2016

Duration: 5 months

Working language: English

Company profile:

This position is for a branch of international engineering company located in Trnava region with around 80 employees and shop floor of 5000m². The company specializes on manufacturing conveyors, heat exchangers, wood processing, waste handling, and recycling machines. Company has international team and believes that excellence can only be achieved through dedication.

Position description:

Intern will be working on designing single-purpose machines and equipment, assembling systems, production lines and conveyors.

Qualifications:

- University education in production/engineering/machinery/Technologies/ project management
- Fluency in English or German
- Experience in 2D/3D CAD Tools
- Ability to read technical drawings
- Knowledge of engineering and manufacturing Technologies
- Analytical and efficient working approach

Knowledge, skills and competence to be acquired:

Intern will gain experience in production technologies for waste management machines, use his/hers skills in AutoCAD 2D and Autodesk Inventor 3D. Intern will have an opportunity to work in international team and improve his time management and multitasking skills.

Benefits:

- accommodation provided
- meal vouchers
- standart support by our team, for details check our website
<http://placementslovakia.com/about-us/what-we-offer>

Interested candidates please apply by submitting an online application form at www.placementslovakia.com and state the name and number of this vacancy into the relevant field in the application.

We look forward to hearing from you!

Junior Project manager
(mechanical engineering Erasmus+ traineeship)

Location: Western Slovakia, Trnava region

Start: april 2016

Duration: 5 months

Working language: English

Company profile:

This position is for a branch of international engineering company located in Trnava region with around 80 employees and shop floor of 5000m². The company specializes on manufacturing conveyors, heat exchangers, wood processing, waste handling, and recycling machines. Company has international team and believes that excellence can only be achieved through dedication.

Position description:

The intern will be managing the implementation and operation of activities within the assigned projects. Internship includes communication with senior project managers, customers and partner companies, creating summary records.

Qualifications:

- University education in production/engineering/machinery/Technologies/ project management
- Fluency in English or German
- Ability to read technical drawings
- Knowledge of engineering and manufacturing Technologies
- Analytical and efficient working approach

Knowledge, skills and competence to be acquired:

Intern will gain experience in production technologies for waste management machines, learn more about project lifecycle and reporting .

Benefits:

- accommodation provided
- meal vouchers
- standart support by our team, for details check our website
<http://placementslovakia.com/about-us/what-we-offer>

Interested candidates please apply by submitting an online application form at www.placementslovakia.com and state the name and number of this vacancy into the relevant field in the application.

We look forward to hearing from you!