The School of Political Science “Cesare Alfieri” - University of Florence is glad to present its International Week for Teaching staff, from 21 to 25 October 2019.

Academic staff from partner universities will have the opportunity to give guest lectures and present their home institution to our students and faculty. This is a great chance to increase the cooperation between our Institutions beyond students' exchanges. Academics are welcome to propose lectures in a variety of topics, mostly targeted at students from our BA and MA Programmes. The teaching language is either English or Italian.

There is no participation fee. However, participants shall use the Erasmus+ Teaching Staff Mobility programme to cover their travelling and accommodation expenses. We invite candidates to check the availability of such funding with their home institution.

Teaching Staff interested in participating to the International Week should fill out the application form
