The Most Sustainable Resource - Higher Education as Catalyst of Sustainability

Erasmus Brussels University of Applied Sciences & Arts (EhB) is very pleased to invite you to our second edition of EhB International Days which will take place from Wednesday 4 December until Friday 6 December 2019.

During the International Days we will provide participants with the exclusive opportunity to:

- Experience and share best practices in dealing with Sustainability within Higher Education Institutions (HEI)
- Share your Erasmus + study programs with our students and staff
- Get acquainted with the six departments of EhB as one of the outstanding institutions of higher education in Brussels;
- Explore our uniqueness of being located in the capital of Europe by attending interesting workshops with experts in the area of “Sustainability” and visits to the Brussels artistic and cultural scene;

- Meet our international and social partners which will enable you to reinforce your network

Program

Wednesday 4 December 2019

Venue: Cine Palace, Boulevard Anspach 85, 1000 Brussels (Metro station Bourse/Beurs)

10 am - 11 am: registration

11 am - 12.30 pm: Opening session hosted by Aubry Cornelis, head of EhB MARCOM

- Welcome by Mrs. Ann BRUSSEEL, President of EhB
- Keynote Speaker Dr. Jan TERLOUW, former president of Democrats 66, Deputy Prime Minister in the Van Agt II Government, author of several children books and enthusiast advocator for sustainable development in The Netherlands
- Bas Litjens, Board Member of the Dutch National Students' Association
- Aisha ADEPOJU, RITCS Alumna and director of documentary 'Al Camino Frente a Mi'
- Reception

12.30 - 1.30 pm: Lunch

1.30 - 3.30 pm: Workshops open to all registered guests, EhB-staff and students

You will be asked to select one of the following workshops:

- Implementing sustainability in your curriculum. Leen Audenaert and Peter Schildermans, Flemish Government - Sustainable Higher Education'. This workshop is addressed to all teaching staff interested in curriculum development. You will be guided through a process which allows you to take the first steps in building a new curriculum. Some energizing examples will be shown on what sustainability and sustainable development goals mean in higher education. An open and informal space will be created to share your ideas.
- Working on sustainability and the circular economy with the OVAM SIS Toolkit. Miranda Geusens en Liesbet Van Ackeleyn (OVAM). Do you want to know more about tools for the circular economy and sustainability? Take part in the hands-on workshop 'OVAM SIS Toolkit' and work together on a concrete case. The OVAM SIS Toolkit '(Sustainable Innovation System) is an instrument that provides guidance towards integrating sustainability principles in innovation and design processes to create sustainable value. Participants will be offered an OVAM SIS Toolkit.
- Education for sustainability in a multi-faceted tomorrow – A Futures Literacy Lab. Maya Van Leemput, Kim De Vidts, Eva De Smedt, Yannick Dujardin (EhB Researchers Open Time | Applied Futures Research). This Lab is open to all interested guests, EhB staff and students. To engage with the exceptional challenge that sustainability is, you are invited to broaden your perspective of the here and now to the long-term future and the greater whole. Take part in this colorful and relaxed activity to strengthen your futures literacy in order to shape together tomorrow's ideas on sustainability in higher education.

7.30 pm: Welcome Dinner for registered guests, Taverne du Passage, Galeries de la Reine 30, 1000 Brussels (Metro Central Station or Bourse)
