

Dear colleagues.

We are pleased to invite you to the University of Iceland's International Staff Training Days June 3-5 2020. We invite staff from partner universities working in International Offices or International Coordinators at Faculty level.

This year's theme is BOOSTING STUDENT MOBILITY: Obstacles, strategies and possible solutions. Focus will be on various factors that contribute to student mobility and how they relate to the new Erasmus+ programme. These include the quality of agreements, digitalisation as well as inclusion and diversity in student mobility.

The program will include keynote presentations, discussions and interactive workshops. Participation fee is 200 € for the full programme. The fee includes lunches (2), Welcome reception on Wednesday, dinner at a downtown Reykjavik restaurant on Thursday evening and a guided excursion on Friday afternoon. Please note that participants are responsible for covering their own accommodation and travel costs.

The deadline for applications is 3 March 2020. Limited places available and no more than 2 participants per university will be accepted.

All applicants will be informed of the the results of the selection committee by 13 March 2020.

The International Staff Training Days at UI provide an opportunity to develop personal and professional skills relating to internationalisation and mobility, participate in cultural events and network with colleagues from a wide range of international higher education institutions. For more information, see our International Staff Training Days Website

If you have any questions, please send an email to ask@hi.is

We look forward to meeting you at the University of Iceland in June!

APPLICATION FORM

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM

Sincerely,

Staff of the International Office at UI