

Andreea Verteș-Olteanu is senior lecturer at the Faculty of Law, within the West University of Timișoara, Romania. During her 15-year tenure, Andreea Verteș-Olteanu provided courses, seminars and practical courses on Constitutional Law, Internet Law, European Union Internet Law and Legal Language. She participated in over 30 national and international conferences and published over 20 articles in national and international journals, mainly on the topics of Constitutional Law and Internet Law, being also interested in comparative and interdisciplinary aspects (mainly Law and Literature). In the field of Constitutional Law, Andreea Verteș-Olteanu is the author of “12 teme de Drept constituțional” (Editura C.H. Beck, 2019) and, in the field of Internet Law, she defended her Ph.D. thesis on the topic „The Civil Liability of Internet Service Providers”, and has, further on, been interested in the topics of freedom of speech, privacy and intellectual property in the digital age.