Dear ERASMUS Partners,

We would like to inform you that the International Relations Office of the University of Zadar is pleased to invite you to the International Staff Week that will be held from 7 – 10 June 2016 in Zadar.

Since we have had a nice and successful ISW last year, we would like to organize the third International Staff Week with aim to share knowledge and new ideas by exchanging experiences. Besides, it would be a pleasure to strengthen existing cooperation relations and explore new possible collaborations options in the future.

Please find more details about the preliminary program and the application form in attachment.

The application deadline is 10 May. A maximum of 2 participants per same university will be considered. A total number of participants up to 25 will be accepted and the results of the application procedure will be sent to the applicants by the 15 May 2016. The main selection criteria are: the position in the home university, with the emphasis on the international work experience and motivation.

The language of training is English.

We are looking forward to welcoming you or your colleagues at our University. If you have any further question, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Best regards,

Rafaela Burmeta
