Subject: International Staff Training Week at University of Zadar 23 - 26 May 2017

Dear Partners and Colleagues,

We would like to inform you that the International Relations Office of the University of Zadar is pleased to invite you to the International Staff Training Week that will be held from 23 – 26 May 2017 in Zadar.

Since we have had a nice and successful ISTW last three years, we would like to organize the fourth International Staff Week with aim to share knowledge and new ideas by exchanging experiences. This year we are especially interested in the participation of colleagues with experience on the Erasmus+ KA107 programme, for the mobility between Erasmus+ member countries and partner countries. Through a combination of presentations, workshops and discussions, the week's programme will provide opportunities for developing our understanding of some of the issues that lie at the heart of student and staff mobility across programme and partner countries. Besides, it would be a pleasure to strengthen existing cooperation relations and explore new possible collaborations options in the future.

We are looking for active participants willing to share innovative ideas and best practices from their home universities. Meetings with international coordinators at the Department could be arranged on demand. List of Departments can be found at: <http://www.unizd.hr/Education/Departments/tabid/5301/language/en-US/Default.aspx> .

As places are limited for 20 people, the participants will be selected on the basis of geographical diversity and fields of interest. Participation will be limited to two people per institution.

The language of training is English.

The application deadline is 1 March 2017.
