Dear colleagues,
we hope this email finds you well.

On behalf of Freie Universitaet Berlin, we would like to invite you to our

International Week 2016
International Affairs: Enhancing Students and Staff Exchange
Library: Libraries in Motion - Structures and Services

We have composed two programmes full of variety – there will be workshops, group events, tours, presentations, sportive activities, and of course time to connect and network. You can find a preliminary version of the programme attached to this email.

How to participate? Our registration phase for the International Week 2016 has begun and we will accept registrations until March 24th 2016. Please visit our website for more information and necessary documents:

<http://www.fu-berlin.de/en/sites/abt-4/mobilitaet/personal/International-Week-2016/> .

If you would like to register for participation, please download the provided registration form and send us the completed version via email to gesa.heym-halayqa@fu-berlin.de. Please note that the selection of participants will be done no earlier than the beginning of April 2016, after we have closed the registration phase. You will receive confirmations of participation from us in the beginning of April.

In case of questions, remarks, or other issues, please do not hesitate to contact me via this email address.

We are looking forward to receiving your registration and to welcoming you to our institution in June / July for an interesting and fun International Week 2016!

Best wishes from Berlin,
Gesa Heym-Halayqa (International Affairs) & Simone Schütte (Library)
