Forging the future with skills and competences for the present

Dear Erasmus+ partners,

Please mark the date May 15 - May19, 2023 in your calendar and join us for the 5th International Staff Week at the University of Kragujevac, Serbia. (Promo Video).

We would be delighted to welcome you! Let's get together to discuss the main talking point - the skills and competences that will be in demand in our ever-changing world and that are already shaping the future of higher education.

Focus points:

- Discussing and exploring skills that will be in demand in the years to follow;
- Talking over the go-to skills for today's labor market;
- The skills and competences acquired through Erasmus program,
- Digitalization of administrative staff via the integration within the EWP network;
- Digitalization of students and teaching staff through virtual classrooms and programs;
- Exploring the heritage and history of the city of Kragujevac;
- Excursion to a Serbian historical and cultural landmark.

You can apply via the following LINK.

Application deadline: May 5th, 2023

Participation fee: 80 EUR (for the meals and excursion).
