

Dear colleague,

Greetings from Tbilisi State University (TSU), Georgia!

We are excited to inform you that the Department of Foreign Relations at TSU is organizing the 7th International Staff Week on April 15-19, 2024 which might be of interest to you. The theme of the event is “Sustainability of International Partnerships in Higher Education.”

A packed schedule of the 5-day in-person activities will offer participants a wide variety of presentations and discussions. The program will also include opportunities to discover Georgian culture and taste extraordinary Georgian cuisine as part of the social program.

It would be truly an honor to see you or a representative of your university at our event; this will allow us to have a better understanding of each other.

Detailed information about the event can be found here.

Should you have any questions or would want to look at the agenda of the event, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Should you no longer be responsible for international relations, please forward this email to those in charge. Thanks in advance!

Kind regards,

Organizing Team
