

Dear Partners and Colleagues,

We do hope this e-mail finds you well. We are writing to inform you that the Faculty of Social and Human Sciences at the Campus of TERUEL of the University of Zaragoza, in TERUEL (Spain) (<https://fcsch.unizar.es/>) is organising its second INTERNATIONAL STAFF WEEK, due to take place from 24th to 26th April 2024. Whilst the actual programme is not definite or final yet, right at this stage, we may nonetheless confirm that, in line with our first edition's programme, during this week we will be offering:

- Slots devoted to mini-lectures/sessions showcasing the various academic areas covered in our Faculty (i.e. Business/Economy and Administration; Education/Teacher Training; Fine Arts; Psychology).
- Slots devoted to research colloquia/meetings where we can briefly present the research strands/lines our Faculty is strong at and, from there, explore current and future opportunities for joint research projects or collaboration at large with any of our partners. (for information on our research strands, please check: <https://fcsch.unizar.es/mapa-de-investigacion-de-la-fcsch>).
- Slots devoted to presentations by each guest on their University, city and country.
- Slots devoted to exchanging ideas about the functioning of Teruel's and our guests' international relations offices.
- Sociocultural slots aimed at offering our guests the chance to get to know and explore the beautiful city of Teruel and some nearby breathtaking hotspots.

With all of the above in mind, we would like to invite any academic and administrative staff members from any of our partner institutions to consider joining us during these three days in late April 2024. There will be no participation fee. Participants should cover the cost of travel and accommodation using the EU staff mobility grant allowed by our current agreement. To help us get an approximate idea of the interest this international week would potentially generate, we will need you to take just a couple of minutes to fill in an online Google form where you register your potential willingness to come and visit us in the splendid historical city of Teruel; here's the link:
