

Dear Partners,

I hope this email finds you well.

I am writing to cordially invite you and your institution to participate in the upcoming International Week at Department of Economics, University of Perugia, which will take place 7-9 October 2024.

The International Week is an exciting opportunity for faculty, and staff from around the world to come together, exchange ideas, and foster international cooperation. This event will feature a series of workshops, presentations, cultural activities, and networking opportunities aimed at promoting cross-cultural understanding and collaboration.

We believe that your participation will greatly enrich the experience of our International Week, and we would be delighted to welcome representatives from your institution.

Please find attached the official invitation, which provides further details about the event, including the program schedule, accommodation options, and registration process.

Should you have any questions or require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact us at segreteria.erasmuseconomia@unipg.it.

We look forward to welcoming you and your delegation to Department of Economics for what promises to be a memorable and enriching International Week.

Warm regards,

Alberto Burchi
