

Spanish Language International Week at the UCV

<http://staffmobility.eu/staffweek/spanish-language-international-week-ucv>

Are you interested in learning Spanish? Do you already know Spanish but you want to strengthen your knowledge? During this International Week of Spanish language courses, the Institute of Languages of the Catholic University of Valencia offers you the opportunity to achieve your goal.

As a higher education institution, the UCV offers one-week Spanish language course of A2, B1 and B2 levels for teachers of Spanish as a foreign language, Administrative Staff who need Spanish for their day-to-day work to communicate effectively and representatives and colleagues from various units eager in learn Spanish.

The course is offered in one-week programme from 18-22 May 2026. It combines 20-hour face-to-face Spanish classes with cultural activities such as visiting the Museum of Arts and Sciences, Fallas Museum, a boat trip and a tour in the historic centre of Valencia.

Located in the Mediterranean Coast of Spain, Valencia is the third largest city in our country. We are very well connected by train and flight combinations with the main cities in Europe. The city offers a great opportunity of visiting beaches, modern architecture, and historic quarters.

Registration fee: 450 € per week (which includes: 20-hours Spanish language course, cultural activities and lunches during the week. Accommodation costs not included). Acceptance will be done by first-arrives basis. Please, do not book your hotel/flight until your participation has been confirmed by our Institute of Languages Team.
