

Seventh International Staff Week

<http://staffmobility.eu/staffweek/seventh-international-staff-week>

Seventh International Staff Week of Dicle University.

Located on the banks of the Tigris River, rewarded with World Tourism Oscar (Golden Apple) home to Hevsel Gardens Cultural Landscapes, ranked in UNESCO World Heritage List with its famous City Walls, Zerzevan Castle and famous Mithras Temple, Diyarbakır is one of the most significant cities of Turkey and the Middle East.

Dicle University has many partnerships and develops projects with international universities around the world by means of Erasmus+ since 2004. We deeply believe that The Seventh International Staff Week will give us precious opportunities to meet esteemed colleagues all over the world at the very junction of history and civilization.

We are looking forward to meeting academic and administrative colleagues to experience both academic meetings and unique cultural events through the organization.

Participants are expected to bring some brochures, leaflets and materials to promote and introduce their institutions in organizational fair sessions. Also, participants will exchange ideas, build new partnerships and prepare a project idea in the week.

The programme is not only open for Erasmus+ Program Countries but also for Erasmus+ Partner Countries.

Looking forward to welcoming you in Diyarbakır.
