

Dear Partners,

We are very pleased to invite you to our first International Staff Training Week organised on the occasion of the 40th anniversary of the Dijon-Mainz university partnership. University of Burgundy International Staff Week will take place from 7th to 10th November 2016 and is specifically dedicated to International Cooperation Managers. Our activity programme is indeed aimed to promote and to enhance International Cooperation through several conferences and various intercultural workshops.

Training objectives:

- Identify different cooperation tools through their strengths and weaknesses
- Brainstorm on opportunities and threats in the global context
- Implement various international cooperation scenarios
- Consider a deepened internationalisation strategy
- And last but not least : Stimulate partnerships through networking

We would be delighted to welcome you and make you taste our worldwide famous wines and gastronomy! As well, come and discover our newly prized UNESCO city and vineyard climates!

Please take a look at our worked up program and feel free to contact us at the following address for any queries : staffweek@u-bourgogne.fr.

Places are strictly limited to 20 participants and selected participants will be contacted personally.

Registration will be open till September 1st, 2016.

Please forward this invitation to your colleagues in charge of international cooperation.

Looking forward to welcoming you, "à la Française".

Kindest Regards,
University of Burgundy International Relations Office
