

----- Forwarded message -----

From: Sabrina Marchiori <sabrina.marchiori@unipd.it>

Date: 22 June 2016 at 12:08

Subject: Padova, 22-25 November 2016: Staff Training Week on "Developing Intercultural Awareness and Empathy in Higher Education"

To:

Dear Colleague,

The University of Padova has the pleasure to invite you to participate in the Staff Training Week on “Developing Intercultural Awareness and Empathy in Higher Education”, which is taking place from 22nd to 25th November 2016 in Padova (see programme hereby attached).

The focus will be on International Competences from staff and students' perspectives. The intercultural dimension of English Medium Instruction (EMI) will also be approached.

Within the framework of the Staff Week, a dedicated seminar on the theme of International Credit Mobility will be organised jointly by the University of Padova and the Coimbra Group "Academic Exchange and Mobility" Working Group. The seminar will take place on the 24th, with the participation of various National Agencies and of the EACEA. Further information and updates in this respect will be sent in due time.

Should you be interested in participating in the Staff Week, please register online HERE: <https://portal.cca.unipd.it/pls/apex/f?p=300:13:129188942693954:::>

(we would recommend that you select Mozilla or Chrome as preferred browser)

Registration deadline: 28th July 2016

Do note that the number of staff accepted from each institution may be restricted, depending on the total number of applicants.

Looking forward to welcoming you to Padova.

With our best regards,

*Roberta Rasa
& the International Relations Office Team*