Subject: Erasmus Staff week KA107 : Cooperating with the Near and Middle East - preliminary Information - Last Call

To:

Dear partners

I would like to remind you that from 5th to 9th December 2017, we will offer an Erasmus Staff week for administrative staff focusing on best-practise of international co-operation with the Near and Middle East.

<https://www.fau.eu/international/employee-mobility/non-teaching-employee-exchange/>

Since in Germany, FAU is an important hub for this region, we are planning to offer workshops and sessions on the following:

- presentations and workshops: organising student exchanges with universities in the Near + Middle East
- strategic internationalisation
- implementing degree programmes (Near Eastern Studies, Islamic Studies, Oriental Studies)
- intercultural training on the Arabic world with country workshops (Jordan, Lebanon and others planned)
- best practice workshop on ERASMUS+ KA107 implementation
- guided tour of Erlangen and Nürnberg

- (optional visit to the famous Nürnberg Christmas Market onwards

- meetings with students and staff

The programme will be offered by my office in cooperation with

- Department of Political Sciences, Chair of Politics and Society of the Near East
- Department of Islamic Religious Studies,
- Department of Oriental Studies, Chair of Oriental Philology + Islam Science
- Language Center
- Erlangen Centre for Islam and Law in Europe (EZIRE)
- Department of Geography

A provisional programme will be available in the middle of October.
