Subject: International Staff Week “Teaching in English in Non-English Speaking University”
To:

Dear partner,

Kaunas University of Technology cordially invites teaching staff from our partner universities to join us for a 5-day programme of International Staff Week “Teaching in English in Non-English Speaking University”.

Goal:

To share the experience, tips and tricks of teaching in English.

Target group:

Teachers who deliver degree programmes through the medium of English.

Duration:

5 days (24 – 28 April 2017).

Application:

To apply for International Staff Training Week, please fill in the online application.

Application deadline is 1 March 2017.

Selected applicants will be informed by 8 March at the latest. They will receive all relevant information and guidelines.

Participation in the Staff Week is free of charge. The participants are expected to cover their travel and hotel costs themselves or using “Erasmus+” funding provided by their home university.

The working language of the event is English.

Please share this information with your colleagues, who teach in English at your University.

We are looking forward to welcoming you in Kaunas!

Best Regards,
