Dear partners,

The Open University of Cyprus organizes its 4th Erasmus International Staff Week from the 6th till the 9th of June 2017. The International Staff Week, which is coordinated by the OUC International Relations, Development and Communications Service, will take place in Nicosia, at the premises of the Open University.

During the Staff Week, participants will have the opportunity to get acquainted with the particularities and discuss the challenges of a distance teaching university, participate in workshops, discuss and exchange ideas and best practices in the areas of international relations, marketing, student support and research. Furthermore, the programme will also include presentations and cultural activities so that participants can discover the culture and rich history of Cyprus.

Attached you may find the preliminary programme and the poster of the Erasmus International Staff Week. Please click HERE to apply

Deadline for applications: 15th of May 2017.

For more information please contact erasmus@ouc.ac.cy

Looking forward in meeting you in Cyprus.

Best regards,
Andrea Sakka
