The Centre for Global Engagement at Coventry University is pleased to announce a 5-day international training and intercultural seminar, "Internationalisation, Language, and Culture," which will take place at Coventry University (United Kingdom), 29th June to 3rd July.

At the end of the training week, participants will gain a better understanding of intercultural concepts and ideas for expanding their university's global engagement strategy. Coventry University is the HESA #1 UK university for student mobility for 4 years in a row. Since 2015, the Centre for Global Engagement has worked with more than 15,000 students engaging in Internationalisation projects across the globe. CGE offers a catalogue of programmes to assist Coventry University students become true global graduates. Students can choose from any number of Internationalisation projects, including language classes, studying or working abroad, international fieldtrips, global research, cultural workshops, summer schools, leadership development, and work experience in the UK and overseas.

We invite you to submit your interest by Friday, 1 May 2020. Please see the attached provisional timetable for more information.
